

ALLOTMENTS MAILING 10.99

- To announce and explain food futures allotments conference / workshops.
- Bring together all interested parties: range of tenants / passive support / wider society / potential tenants
- Independent (non-council) initiative. We are allotmenters ourselves.
- To help empower people to improve allotments.
- Realise potential of allotments: community / social / cultural / training / educational / economic / recycling / local food / organic / sustainability

QUESTIONNAIRE

Facts and figures (statistics) to inform and support what changes plotters would like to see, and participate in.

LOGISTICS

Mailout with bills at year end? Number of copies? Deadline?
Freepost reply to Healthy Sheffield? Data processing? Translation?
Confidentiality?

PROPOSED FORMAT

PERSONAL DETAILS:

name / age / address / phone / work full-time / part-time / unemployed / retired disposable income (after rent, rates, bills) per week plot & site / how long? /
Other users (family / friends / shared)?

SHORT QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Hours spent on allotment per year?
How much cultivated?
How much does your allotments benefit your health?
Do you grow organic?
Are you part of or do you know of any groups or organisations using allotments?
Where do you get manure / compost / organic matter / fertilisers?
What products do you use on your allotment?
Where do you buy them?

OPEN-ENDED QUESTIONS (use other side of paper).

Any further comments on these questions.
What are your ideas on how to improve allotments in Sheffield?