

April 2005-04-13

Strategic

Inside out or outside in?

Retributive or constructive?

Full frontal attack or clever / by implication?

So successful as to eclipse

My Aims

Personal connection / My Reputation

Reassure individuals of my integrity

Reinstatement = Freedom to Restore Gardens

My conclusions

Settlement confirms unfair dismissal

Multiple managerial incompetence

Evil intent – repeated sequence of banishing threats to power

Nepotism – Most damaging to that couple

Charity run for personal benefit of one individual

Cult

Censorship / Deception / Corrupt / illegal

Coercion of workers and trustees / corporate bullying

Institutionally unaccountable

10 years' commitment to gardens

2005 = 10th anniversary

I retain accumulated skills and experience (wealth)

Still attached to place (by interactive connections)

4 years Tolerated destruction of garden's functions

Punished for objecting to incompetence and injustice

6 months Equivalent to removing brain, heart and soul of garden

Sacking / Expulsion – most traumatic experience

Scape-goating – blame person rather than understand situation / context

Interested parties

Caretakers / workers (e.g. Aoo embarrassed at unpleasantness)

Trustees (guilt / part of conspiracy)

Talk to Jamie the farmer / local community / pub

Project Contacts – e-mail / Unstone Users / members

Media – local / investigative

Networks / Agencies - Thrive / LSC / Consortium / CharComm / Soil Ass. /

Vol Eng / Social Services / HSE

The future

Reorganisation - Address fatal flaws

How to heal / recover after trauma (personally and institutionally)